Rotary Club of Plainsboro, New Jersey held a successful fund raiser event – An evening of music on July 25, 2009

Plainsboro, NJ, 7.27.09 — The Rotary Club of Plainsboro, New Jersey (RCPNJ) held an 'evening of music' fund raiser for the Jaipur Limb Project on July 25, 2009 at the Cross Roads South Middle School in South Brunswick, NJ.

The well known Hindi singer duo Sanjeev and Armeen Rambhadran enthralled the 500 strong audience for about three hours. All the proceeds from the event were targeted for the Jaipur Limb project, the flag ship project of the RCPNJ and also Rotary District 7510. Club member Dr. Rajeev Mehta was the master of ceremonies for the show that raised about $25,000 for the Jaipur Limb project.

Assemblywoman Linda Greenstein, Assemblyman Upendra Chivukula, Assemblyman Wayne DeAngelo and Councilman Mahesh (Mac) Shah were among the invited guests, and each said many nice things about the club. Darshan Doshi, the current President of the club made a presentation about the Jaipur Limb Project and also briefed the audience on club activities.

Dinesh Mittal, the past president of RCPNJ, said that the club members had worked hard to showcase this great event. He mentioned that the people who came to the event were impressed by the activities of the RCPNJ as within a short span of seven years, RCPNJ had played an active role in major events and is credited with raising about $300,000 for social projects.
